FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

VITAL 5 PRODUCTIONS FINISHES THE SUMMER WITH THE PAINTINGS OF JAMES JAXXA

On August 28, Vital 5 Productions will conclude it's summer series of exhibits with the opening of James Jaxxa's bold new work. Vital 5 is proud to present this dynamic collection of one of Seattle's most promising and visually captivating artists. His modern storytelling is playfully crafted through a bold use of color and modern symbolism. With influences from artists such as Jean Miro, Frank Stella and Keith Haring, his fusion of pop art, pictography and modern communications creates a profound commentary masked in amusement.

This show will mark the end of Vital 5 Production's presence in Belltown due to the demolition of the 2000 block of Second Avenue to make way for a new condominium complex. Slated for destruction in early September, Vital 5 is excited to conclude the summer with such a strong showing of work.

We would like to extend the invitation to join us on August 28th for the opening reception of James Jaxxa's show and the conclusion of Vital 5 Productions active summer. From 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. there will be live music and refreshments to help celebrate. This will stand as the last opportunity to take part in the short but explosive art resurgence in Belltown before the wrecking ball swings.
